Established in 1951, IOM is a Related Organization of the United Nations, and as the leading UN agency in the field of migration, works closely with governmental, intergovernmental and non-governmental partners. IOM is dedicated to promoting humane and orderly migration for the benefit of all. It does so by providing services and advice to governments and migrants. IOM has been present in Morocco since 2001, and opened the mission in Rabat in 2007.

IOM is committed to a diverse and inclusive environment. Internal and external candidates are eligible to apply to this vacancy. For the purpose of the vacancy, internal candidates are considered as first-tier candidates.

Context:

Under the overall supervision of the Chief of Mission and Head of Programmes in Morocco, and direct supervision of the Protection Officer; and, in collaboration with relevant units within the mission, the Programme Manager – Protection and assistance to vulnerable migrants, will be responsible and accountable for the coordination, implementation and overall supervision of the protection and assistance to vulnerable migrants programming.

S/he will ensure supervision of all related initiatives, encourage synergies among projects, compliance with administrative and programmatic procedures in coordinating project activities, monitoring financial budgets and communicating with IOM's partners and key stakeholders.

Core Functions / Responsibilities:

1. Manage the country office projects related to the protection and assistance to vulnerable migrants, including the planning, coordination and implementation of all technical programming, monitoring the effective implementation and financial expenditures, the preparation of required reports and quality of deliverables and

- services, and the conduct of monitoring and evaluation activities, according to donor commitments and IOM institutional policies, guidance and tools.
2. Develop communication material related to protection and assistance to vulnerable migrants and deliver trainings and awareness raising sessions to partners on related topics, including but not limited to identification and protection of vulnerable migrants, PSEA, gender equality, case management, human rights, national and international laws on migration.
 3. Act as focal point, in close coordination with the Protection Officer, for new project development related to the protection and assistance to vulnerable migrants and liaise with donors and potential donors as relevant.
 4. Liaise and collaborate closely, maintain positive relations and establish partnerships with identified national and international stakeholders and partners in the protection and humanitarian assistance sector, and improve awareness of related issues among IOM staff, authorities, national and international civil society organizations, the United Nations system, diplomatic missions, media actors and other relevant stakeholders, including by developing advocacy initiatives and representing IOM in international and national events in this programmatic area.
 5. In particular, act as focal point for inter-agency coordination, notably with UNHCR, UNICEF, UNFPA, ILO or UNODC, both for the coordination of specific joint projects and activities, and for maintaining an ongoing dialogue around strengthening links between agencies, including joint advocacy and activities; act as focal point in relevant coordination groups related to the protection and assistance to vulnerable migrants, and contribute to the establishment and/or operationalization as needed.
 6. Supervise and oversee the work of the protection and assistance sub-unit, conduct staff performance appraisal using the IOM Performance Appraisal System (PAS), identify and respond to training needs of staff, and develop and deliver professional in-house trainings as required.
 7. Keep updated with policies and strategies related to protection and assistance to vulnerable migrant issues and foster a rights-based approach programming, promoting pilot sustainable solutions for targeted groups in vulnerable situations, and contribute to mission strategic orientations on related topics.
 8. Undertake duty travel as required, for project site review and other duties of concern to the project activities.
 9. Perform such other duties in link to protection of vulnerable populations in general, but also to other strategic and priority areas of the mission as required.
